A dispatch from Hot Springs, Ark., says that Detective Porter, of Nashville, with a requisition from the Governor of Tenn., arrested Captain James C. Fleming, late chief deputy of ex-State Treasurer Polk, charged with making false entries while under Polk amounting to $40,000.

The Thunderbolt express coming south on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio Railroad, due at Cincinnati, at 8.30, but half an hour behind and running fast to make up lost time, struck a jackster wagon at Spring Grove Cemetery, in which were a family of six persons and a driver. Every one except Wm. Berstch, the driver, was killed.

Two vessels have arrived at Pensacola Florida, having lost a captain and one seaman, and another dying after arrival, with yellow fever. Both vessels were from Vera Cruz, where the fever is reported to be epidemic.

J. E. Adams, ticket agent at Charlotte, N. C., of the Richmond and Atlanta Air-Line Railroad, and Capt. E. O. Nesbit, a popular passenger conductor, have been arrested on the charge of embezzling funds from the railroad company. The detectives claim to have strong proof against the accused parties.

Four commissioners and the county clerk of Grant county were all shot at Hot Sulphur Springs, Col., by a mob of masked men. Barney Day and Mr. Mills were instantly killed, and E. P. Webster and D. J. Dean were mortally wounded. The citizens of Grant county have called on the Governor for the aid of State militia.

The celebration of the "Fourth" caused 38 casualties in Chicago. Three persons were killed, five fatally wounded, twenty-three more or less maimed for life, and seven slightly injured. The chief instruments of destruction were toy pistols and small cannons in the hands of little children.

LONDON, July 4.—Mr. Wm. O'Brien, member from Mallon, will ask Parliament to-day where the money is coming from to pay the expense of bringing back the assisted immigrants refused permission to land in New York.

The Dauphin county almshouse, at Harrisburg, and all the buildings on the premises, except the laundry and schoolhouse, were burned. The fire was first discovered in a large frame stable, located near the main structure, which was consumed, together with its contents, including two horses and five mules. The heated slate on the main structure set fire to that building, and as there was a very high wind blowing at the time, the building was soon destroyed. As soon as the dwelling caught, the steward and his assistants rushed to the insane department and forced the excited inmates, 21 females and 17 males, from their quarters. All of them were saved. Loss, $200,000.

The receiver of McGeech, Everingham & Co., the broken lard firm of Chicago, submitted a statement to the creditors yesterday showing that the sum due members of the Chicago Board of Trade is $1,194,000, all of which is unsecured. ## Washington Notes.

Information was received at the War Department of the death of Major Francis U. Farquhar, corps of engineers, at Detroit on the 3d inst.

Argument was begun yesterday before the Postmaster General relative to the using of the mails to carry on the lottery business.

Gen. Crook has arrived here, and will have an interview at once with the Secretary of war in reference to the prisoners captured.

The formal opening of the Yellowstone Park is expected to take place some time in August, probably about the period that the last spike is driven in the Northern Pacific Railroad. In commemoration of the latter event arrangements have been made for the presence of a large number of spectators from the East, and many distinguished persons from here and elsewhere have promised to be present.

No doubt whatever is entertained in treasury circles that the agitation over the trade dollar was started originally for speculative purposes, and at the present depreciation a very good speculation it will be. The treasury officials say that Congress cannot possibly refuse to redeem them, and those who are buying them up now at 15 per cent. discount will make a good thing. It should not be forgotten that they contain 7½ grains more of silver than the standard dollar, which passes as a legal tender at its face value.

An order has been issued, by direction of the Secretary of war, promulgating the approval of the findings and sentence of the court-martial in Paymaster Wasson's case. His dismissal from the army will take effect July 3, 1883, and he will be imprisoned in the Kansas State penitentiary, at Lansing, Kan., for 18 months.

Capt. Payne has applied to the United States Circuit Court at Topeka, Kansas, for an injunction to restrain Gen. Pope and Secretary Lincoln from interfering with his contemplated movement into Oklahoma.
